

CPD Oxford

Rheumatology for Primary Care

Thursday 11th July 2024

Aimed at General Practitioners and Primary Care Health Professionals
A virtual one-day update to comprehensively cover rheumatology disorders for primary care
Expert consultant faculty based at Oxford University Hospitals NHSFT

Cost - £60*

*Subsidised rate (£30) available for trainees

Course Organiser:

Dr Joel David

Venue:

Virtual, via Zoom
Recordings available to all registrants

Date: 11th July 2024

Programme includes:

- Physical activity in MSK disease
- Referral pathways for fibromyalgia
- Teenagers who over-exercise
- Pain, teenagers and neuro-diversity
- Overuse injuries and bone stress
- Anti-inflammatory treatments for OA
- When to investigate back pain
- The early arthritis service, recognizing red flags
- Osteoporosis – new approaches for primary care
- Accessing the rheumatology service, helpline and PIFU
- The PMR and GCA service
- DMARDs – are they safe?
- Biologics – a simple guide
- Who, and when to refer to the CTD clinic
- Virtual Q&A / Panel sessions with speakers

Book Now: www.cpdoxford.com/booking

Enquiries: henry@oxfordcpd.com